(2) According to the original scheme, each Medical practitioner will be supplied with medicines of the value of Rs 300 for the first year only, and an allowance of Rs 35/- per mensem for the first year and Rs 50 per mensem thereafter. It is now proposed to supply medicines of the value of Rs 250 every year (from the District Board Funds), furniture of the value of Rs 50/- in the initial stage and an allowance of Rs 40/- per mensem (from General Revenues). Whether the supply of medicines of the value of Rs 250 every year, in addition to the monthly allowance of Rs 40, is really necessary, may be considered. As, however, the revised scheme is proposed to be sanctioned only for two years in the first instance and the cost of medicines is proposed to be recovered from the District Board, there is no financial objection to it. With regard to the initial grant of Rs 50 for furniture, it is to be stated that some provision has to be made, in order to ensure that the furniture of this value is surrendered to Government, in case the rural dispensary is not continued for a long period but closed for some

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.G.1573/Med. dated the 3rd Instant re: the scheme for subsidising Medical Practitioners in Rural Areas, I have the honour to state that as matters stand, there are Local Fund and District Board Dispensaries in almost all places with a fairly large population where a Rural Practitioner has some scope for private practice. I have however addressed the District Medical Officers of several Districts to let me know whether there are any such places where this scheme could be introduced, and on hearing from them, I shall submit final proposals to Government.

GENERAL SECRETARIAT 13 OCT. 1936

The General Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Bangalore.

Sir,

In continuation of my letter No.G.C.184-8 dated the 10th September 1936. re: the scheme for subsidising Medical Practitioner in Rural Areas, I have the honour to state that I requested the District Medical Officers of the several Districts to send me the names of large villages where this scheme could be introduced and where the Medical Practitioner would have some scope for private practice, so as to enable him to establish himself independantly, later on. Enclosed is a list of such places, received from the District Medical Officers, where they recommend that the scheme may be tried as an experimental measure.

In this connection I wish to point out that resolutions have already been received from the Presidents, District Boards of Tumkur and Kolar, for the opening of a reduced Scale Dispensary in their Districts, and another resolution from the District Board. Chitaldrug is awaited. These are being submitted to Government in a separate communication. Sanction to these proposals would mean an expenditure of Rs.2500/- for maintaining the 3 dispensaries for the remaining portion of the year, thus leaving a balance of Rs.2500/- from out of the sanctioned grant under opening of New Dispensaries during the current year to be utilised otherwise. I therefore propose that leaving these three Districts a subsidised Medical Practitioner may be sanctioned for the other five Districts, the cost on this account being met from the balance of Rs.2500/- pointed out above.

These practitioners may be given a fixed pay of Rs.40/- per mensem, which may be met by Government, and an annual supply of Rs.250/- worth of medicines, which may be contributed by the

the District Boards. An initial supply of Rs.50/- worth of furniture may also be supplied from Government grants. Recruitment to these appointments may be made from amongst the available L.M.P's in the State. The appointment will, of course, be outside the cadre of Sub Assistant Surgeons and non-pensionable. The incumbents will be under the direct administrative control of this Department and will be required to render periodical accounts and statistics to the District Medical Officers concerned. The scheme may be tried for a period of two years in the first instance, and extended if found satisfactory. If the Government approve of the proposals, one place may be selected for each District from among the places in the list and the willingness of the District Boards to contribute Rs.250/- annually for the supply of medicines may be ascertained. A statement of the probable cost for the opening and maintenance of these dispensaries with the cost it entails Government is enclosed for reference.

I solicit early orders.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
